THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
GREENVILLE, S. C.
JAMES P. BOYCE, D. D., Professor of Systematic Theology.
JOHN A. BROADUS, D. D., Professor of Interpretation of the New Testament.
BASIL MANLY, Jr., D. D., Professor of Biblical Introduction, Polemic Theology, and Preparation and Delivery of Sermons.
REV. CRAWFORD H. TOY, Professor of Interpretation of the Old Testament, and Oriental Languages.
WM. WILLIAMS, D. D., Professor of Church History, Church Government, and Pastoral Duties.
The next session (of eight months) opens on Thursday, September 1st, 1870, when there will be an Introductory Lecture by Dr.
Boyce. It is on many accounts important for students to be present on the very first day.
THE STUDIES
Are exclusively Theological. The Seminary does not undertake to supplant a college or grammar school in giving literary instruction. Those who need that must seek it where it is appropriate. But in pursuing the extensive course included strictly under Theology, instruction is given adapted to different grades of preparation; so that the best college graduates and those who have only a good English education, may both find such courses as they respectively need. There are eight distinct Departments or Schools, several of which have two or three classes each.
SELECTION OF STUDENTS.
A student selects, with such advice as he may desire from the professors, the subjects to which he devotes himself for the year. If successful, he can graduate in the departments he has chosen, and the next year, if he is able to return, pursues the other parts of the course, to complete which requires usually three to four years, according to preparation and diligence.
PASTORS ATTENDING FOR ONE YEAR.
On leave of absence from their churches, might find their minds directed as to the method of study, the books which are most available, the topics which need investigation;
and by their presence among the students might both receive and impart stimulus and practical experience in their great life-work.
EXPENSES.
There are no charges for tuition, nor fees of any kind. Some of the rarer and more expensive text-books, as in the Languages, are loaned to the students. The cost of those to which it is necessary to buy varies from ten to twenty-five dollars a year. They may be procured in Greenville at New York cost.— Board is furnished in the "Seminary Hall," at actual cost, say about ten dollars a month, including food, fuel and lights. One hundred dollars will cover necessary expenses of a senior, if clothing, traveling expenses and personal incidentals are otherwise provided for.
LOCATION.
Greenville is in a healthy mountain region, and is reached by railroad, via Columbia, S. C.
AID TO STUDENTS.
Who need such assistance is supplied, so far as the means contributed admit, out of a
"Student's Fund," the collection and management of which has been entrusted to Rev. B.
Manly, Jr. It is desired that no one, who is prepared to enter with proper qualifications, spiritual and intellectual, on the studies of the Seminary, shall be deterred from it by lack of means. Brethren wishing to attend are invited to write at once. Contributions for the purpose of supplying them, with the necessary of life while studying to prepare for the ministry are also respectfully solicited.
For catalogues, or further information, address

Secretary of the Faculty.

Preparation and Delivery of Sermons.
REV. CRAWFORD H. TOY, Professor of Interpretation of the Old Testament, and Oriental Languages.
WM. WILLIAMS, D. D., Professor of Church History, Church Government, and Pastoral Duties.
The next session (of eight months) opens
on Thursday, September 1st, 1870, when
there will be an Introductory Lecture by Dr.
Boyce. It is on many accounts important for students to be present on the very first day.
THE STUDIES
Are exclusively Theological. The Sem-
or grammar school in giving literary in-
where it is appropriate. But in pursuing the
extensive course included strictly under Theology, instruction is given adapted to different
grades of preparation; so that the best college
graduates and those who have only a good English education, may both find such courses
as they respectively need. There are eight
distinct Departments or Schools, several of which have two or three classes each.
SELECTION OF STUDENTS.
A student selects, with such advice as he
may desire from the professors, the subjects to which he devotes himself for the year. If successful, he can graduate in the departments
he has chosen, and the next year, if he is able to return, pursues the other parts of the
course, to complete which requires usually
and diligence.
PASTORS ATTENDING FOR ONE YEAR.
On leave of absence from their churches,
might find their minds directed as to the
method of study, the books which are most
available, the topics which need investigation;
and by their presence among the students might both receive and impart stimulus and practical experience in their great life-work.
EXPENSES.
There are no charges for tuition, nor fees of any kind. Some of the rarer and more expensive text-books, as in the Languages, are
loaned to the students. The cost of those to which it is necessary to buy varies from ten
to twenty-five dollars a year. They may be procured in Greenville at New York cost.— Board is furnished in the "Seminary Hall," at actual cost, say about ten dollars a month, including food, fuel and lights. One hundred dollars will cover necessary expenses of a senior, if clothing, traveling expenses and personal incidentals are otherwise provided for.
LOCATION.
Greenville is in a healthy mountain region,
and is reached by railroad, via Columbia, S. C.
AID TO STUDENTS.
Who need such assistance is supplied, so far as the means contributed admit, out of a
"Student's Fund," the collection and management of which has been entrusted to Rev. B.
Manly, Jr. It is desired that no one, who is prepared to enter with proper qualifications, spiritual and intellectual, on the studies of the Seminary, shall be deterred from it by lack
of means. Brethren wishing to attend are invited to write at once. Contributions for the purpose of supplying them, with the necessary of life while studying to prepare for the
For catalogues, or further information, ad-
B. Manly, Jr.,
Secretary of the Faculty.
